The source of collection of personal information:

Lombard collects personal information directly and/or indirectly from the following data subjects:

- Prospective clients who enquire about our financial services.
- Clients who have appointed a broker for their insurance purposes.
- Policyholders who enter a policy via any of our FSP's with whom we have binder and/or intermediary agreements with.
- Any other insurance purposes that Lombard may require the information for.

Personal information is most usually collected directly from you through the completion of a needs analysis done by the intermediary, application form and/or any other information that is for the purpose of insurance and to enable us to act as your Insurer – we do same in various manners through our distribution channels.

We may also collect information about you from other sources such as external third parties and from cookies on our website.

Law authorising or requiring collecting of the personal information:

As an authorised financial services provider, we are obligated in terms of the following legislation, including subordinated legislation to collect your personal information insofar as it relates to the rendering of the relevant financial services to you. Currently this includes the following, but not limited to same:

- Financial Advisory and Intermediaries Services Act 37 of 2002;
- Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001;
- Insurance Act 18 of 2017;
- Short-Term Insurance Act 53 of 1998.

Purpose for Processing your Information:

We collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information mainly to provide you with access to the services and products that we provide. We will only process your information for a purpose you would reasonably expect, including:

- Complying with the obligations contained in the contract concluded between yourself and the FSP.
- Providing you with advice, products and services that suit your needs as requested and communicated via our distribution channel.
- To verify your identity and to conduct credit reference searches.
- To issue, administer and manage your insurance policies.
- To process insurance claims and to take recovery action.
- To notify you of new products or developments that may be of interest to you.
- To confirm, verify and update your details.
- To comply with any legal and regulatory requirements.

Some of your information that we hold may include, your first and last name, email address, a home, postal or other physical address, other contact information, your title, birth date, gender, occupation, qualifications, past employment, residency status, assets, liabilities, insurance, income, expenditure, family history, medical information and your banking details.

Some of the aforementioned personal information may be mandatory to provide within the context of product providers' underwriting requirements and disclosures.

Failing to provide compulsory information may lead to our organisation's inability to carry out the functions necessary to perform as an authorised financial services provider.
